RELIEF OF THE POOR. The Sub-Committe Makes Several Admirable Suggestions. The sub-Conmittee on Relief of the Poor met at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the aimshouse. Those present were Messra Gunst and Noble, Mr. Walke, the other member, being unable to be present.

The matter which the committee met to consider was in regard to the admission of women who are enciente into the institution, the city at present being put to great extense every year by the treatment of such persons, who frequently have no claim whatever to treatment here, often coming from other States.

The committee considered the question carefully of receiving non-resident patients in the condition above referred to, and decided to recommend to the full Committee on Relief of the Poor that the superintendent of the amishouse be instructed to have a careful examination of each case made by the resident physiciams, and that if a patient has any other place where she can be taken care of she must be sent there, and only those who are paucers shall be treated.

In regard to the admission of patients to the almshouse, the sub-committee was of the opinion that the superintendent should use his own discretion.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 6, 1896. To the Hon. Richard M. Taylor, Anyor: I herein tender to you and to the City Council my resignation as city attorney

I take this step as I have decided not to vote for Messrs. Bryan and Sewall. As a large number of the Council who yoted for me at the last election would not have done so had they thought that I would not vote what is termed "the straight party ticket," I prefer not to hold the office under the existing circumstances. My experience teaches me that the position of city attorney is one which calls so frequently for full and untesitating confidence on the part of the Council towards its attorney that I think anything which may lead to any lessening or estrangement of that confidence would be injurious to the city's interests. I therefore tender my resignation to take effect upon the election and qualification of my successor. I take this step as I have decided not Allow me to express to you and to the members of the City Council my high appreciation of the great courtesy and consideration I have always received from ach of you during the years of our of-

C. V. MEREDITH.

A TALK WITH MR. MEREDITH.

A Times reporter called upon Mr. Meredith at his residence. No. 201 east Grace street, yesterday afternoon, for the purpose of enquiring whether he had anything further to give out concerning his reasons for resigning the city attorney-by as presecuting attorney. So much reaged was Mr. Meredith with this case tion from persons of every shade of po-litical opinion resterday. "It was a frank, manly act," said a gentleman intimately acquainted with him, "but it was in keep-ing with Charlle Meredith's character through life. He is as straight as a shingle, and an honester, squarer man terday.

shingle, and an honester, squarer man is not living."

This is a sample of the opinions expressed, and they come from gentlemen who are qualified from their intimate acquaintance with Mr. Mercelith to know whereof they speak. His motives in resigning are thoroughly appreciated, and his honesty in placing principle above gain highly applauded.

As soon as Mr. Bea, T. August, city clerk, was informed by Mayor Taylor of Mr. Mercelith's resignation, he wrote to President W. M. Turpin, of the Board of Alustmen, in regard to the calling of a caucus of the two branches of the Common Council, to elect a successor. Mr. Turpin came to Mr. August's office yesterday afternoon, and after examining the law on the subject, informed that gentleman that he would to-day inform him when the meeting should be called. It is thought the time set will be during the early part of next week.

HIS PROBABLE SUCCESSOR.

HIS PROBABLE SUCCESSOR.

Befere Mr. Meredith's resignation had been public property an four, two candidates had appeared in the field, and a number of others are spoken of. Those who have positively announced themselves as willing to accept the office are Messrs. L. O. Wendenburg and Julian Bryant. It is said that others who would serve if elected are Messrs. Henry R. Pollard, S. S. P. Patteson, W. O. Skelton, H. M. Smith, Jr., J. L. Anderson, Jackson Guy, and J. Alston Cabell. None of these gentiemen have been feard to express themselves on the subject. The salary attached to the office is $2.50, but there is leisure for offside work. Before Mr. Meredith's resignation had

BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW. The Local Council Elects Officers for the Ensuing Year.

The annual meeting of the Local Council of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew was held last night in the lecture-room Secretary H. O. Mason, the rector of the church, while the business session was president of the Thomas E. Ruffin, the president of the council. Secretary Thomas Poindexfer recorded. The attendance was rather small, and of the twelve chapters in this city and vicinity the following were not represented:

St. Andrew's, Holy Trinity, St. Mark's,
St. John, Meade Memorial church.
The following officers of the Local Council were then elected for the Locating year: Thomas C. Ruffin, president; B. B. Valentine, vice-president; B. B. Valentine, vice-president; Thomas Poindexter, secretary and treasurer. Ex-ecutive Committee-Messrs, Thomas C, Ruffin, B. B. Valentine, Thomas Poindex-ter, Colonel J. V. Eldgood, and Joseph

Reports were then received from the reports as to the delegates who are to attend the annual convention in Pittsburg from October 14th to 19th. It was stated that Mr. Thomas G. Authony would represent Monumental church, while Mr. Henry L. Valentine would go to Pittsburg as a delegate of St. James' church. Mr. Grosser expects to represent Emanuel church, and Mr. Rood will go as a representative of All Saints Chap-

Contributions were promised toward the defraying of the expenses if the Lo-cal Council should decide to send a representative from the following chapters: Grace, St. John, St. Paul, St. James, and Christ church. In view of the fact that several chapters have declared that they will send some of their members as delegates to the convention, it was thought that the Local Council should not send any special representative to the convention.

Wood for the Poor

Editor of The Times:
Sir,—By the kindness of Major Ginter, the poor may get a winter's supply of wood if they will only cut it. Mr. A.
H. Thiermann, Major Ginter's manager, offers to give wood to all persons whom will cut it or have it cut. He will haul it to the railroad, and I am very certain that the railroad, with its usual generosity, will haul it to Richmond free. The wood is located on the Mechanicsville road, about five miles from the city. It is desirable that those who wish to avail themselves of this offer will report to me at once. Widows can emage others to cut it for them at from 60 to 15 cents per cord, perhaps. As Major Ginter will have some one present while the cutting is going on, we present while the cutting is going on, we will not begin work until six or more Min not begin wors and say, by next applicants report to me, say, by next Monday. The wood must be cut this mouth, and stacked ready for hauling before bad weather sets in. Each family can have three cords cut. This will be a winter's supply, if carefully used.
